

38 - North Shore News - Friday, December 7, 2007

look

the scoop

Sweet treats

Looking for a fragrant treat to sweeten the holiday season? Open Sundaes' decadent sugar-coated cranberry holiday scent is back by popular demand.

The sweet-inspired bath and body product line, created by North Vancouverite Mashiah Vaughn, is featuring the scent in its special-edition Cupcake Bubble Bomb; Body Frosting, Lip Topping, Premium Hand Made Soy Dessert Candle, Hand & Body

Wash and Lotion; and its Bon Bon Bath Melts. Prices range from $10.95 for a lip gloss or bath bomb to $59.95 for a gift set of assorted holiday items.

Find the products at Park Royal Shopping Centre — at The Bay and at the Open Sundaes kiosk in the north mall. Open Sundaes also has two bath and body boutiques in Vancouver, at 3742 West 10th Ave. in Kitsilano and 1082 Mainland St. in Yaletown.

— Layne Christensen